PART II—Payment of Pensions, Gratuities and other Allowances, etc.

Pensions, gratuities and other allowances.

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, pensions, gratuities and other allowances shall be payable to pensionable officers, in accordance with this Act and regulations made hereunder.

(2) Any pension, gratuity or other allowance granted under this Act shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and any Regulations made under, or saved by this Act at the actual date of retirement of the pensionable officer.

5.—(1) Subject to section 42(1)—

Payment of pensions, etc.

- (a) prior to the establishment of the Fund pursuant to section 7(4), there shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund; and
- (b) upon the establishment of the Fund pursuant to section 7(4), there shall be paid out of the Fund, such sums of money as may from time to time be payable by way of pension, gratuity or other allowance, in pursuance of this Act.

(2) If the Fund, when established, is at any time unable to pay any sum by way of pension, gratuity or other allowance which the Fund is required to pay under this Act, such sum shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

(3) All sums paid out of the Consolidated Fund pursuant to subsection (2) shall be treated as grants by the Government to the Fund.

(4) The Board, acting on the advice of an actuary may issue directions with respect to the application of any actuarial surplus in the Fund.

PART III—Establishment of Pension Scheme, Pension Fund and Board of Trustees

6.—(1) There is hereby established a defined benefit contributory scheme to be known as the Public Service Pension Scheme for the purpose of ensuring that all pensionable officers receive a pension, gratuity or other allowance on retirement.

Establishment of and membership in scheme.

(2) With effect from such date as may be determined by the Minister by order, all pensionable officers shall, by virtue of the provisions of this Act, become members of the Scheme and shall be required to contribute to the Fund upon its establishment under section 7(4) and pending the establishment of the Fund, the contributions shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Establishment of Fund.

7.—(1) Subject to subsection (4), for the purposes of this Act, there shall be established a Fund to be known as the Public Service Pension Fund.

(2) There shall be paid into or (in the case of property, other than money) transferred to the Fund—

- (a) all contributions made by pensionable officers as members;
- (b) all contributions made by the Government of Jamaica to the Fund, as the employer;
- (c) all contributions made by an undertaking in accordance with section 11(4);
- (d) moneys earned or arising from any investments acquired by or vested in the Fund;
- (e) all other sums which may in any manner become payable to and any property vested in the Fund;
- (f) such sums as may be appropriated by Parliament for the purposes of the Fund.

(3) Notwithstanding section 5(1), the Board may authorize payments out of the Fund for any of the purposes for which payments out of the Fund are expressly authorized by this Act.

(4) The Fund shall be established on such date as the Minister may determine by order, subject to affirmative resolution and on the Minister being satisfied, after consultation with the Auditor General, that the establishment and operation of the Fund will not result in non-compliance with any of the requirements specified in section 48C of the Financial Administration and Audit Act (fiscal targets).

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the Fund shall not be established until the Minister is satisfied that the debt to GDP (gross domestic product) ratio has reached sixty percent.

(6) The Fund, when established shall be deemed to be an approved superannuation fund for the purposes of the Income Tax Act.

(7) Prior to the establishment of the Fund, the contributions of members under the Scheme shall be deemed to be ordinary annual contributions to an approved superannuation fund for the purposes of section 13 (1)(i) of the Income Tax Act.

(8) There shall be paid out of the Fund, when established, in addition to such sums as may be granted by way of pension, gratuity or other allowance, such expenses of administration as are authorized under this Act or regulations made hereunder.

8.—(1) There shall be established, with effect from the date on which the Fund is established, a Board of Trustees of the Fund. Establishment of Board of Trustees.

(2) The Board shall be responsible for—

(a) the management and control of the Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Act and any regulations made hereunder; and

(b) the policy and general administration of the Fund.

(3) The provisions of Part A of the Second Schedule shall have effect as to the constitution of the Board of Trustees and otherwise in relation thereto.

(4) The provisions of Part B of the Second Schedule shall have effect with respect to the functions, management and control of the Fund. Second Schedule.

PART IV—Sources

9. For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the moneys and other property of the Fund shall, for the purposes of this Act and any other enactment, be held by the Board in trust for the members of the Scheme, to be administered by the Board in accordance with the provisions of this Act. Money in Fund to be held by the Board in trust.

10.—(1) Commencing as from such date as the Minister shall determine, the Government shall pay into the Fund, in respect of each pensionable officer, periodic contributions in such amounts and manner as may be determined by the Minister by order, subject to affirmative resolution of the House of Representatives. Employer's contribution to the Fund.

(2) During any period in which a pensionable officer is not in receipt of a salary, the Government shall not be liable to make contributions pursuant to subsection (1) in relation to that pensionable officer.

(3) During any period in which a pensionable officer is in receipt of part salary, the Government's contributions under subsection (1) shall abate proportionately.

(4) Where, after a period referred to in subsection (2) or (3), salary is paid to the pensionable officer in respect of all or any part of that period, the Government shall make contributions under subsection (1) in respect thereof, accordingly.

Employee's contribution to the Fund.

11.—(1) As a contribution towards the pensions, gratuities and other allowances provided for under this Act, there shall be deducted from the salary of a pensionable officer and an officer employed in a pensionable office, and paid into the Fund, an amount as may be prescribed by the Minister by order published in the Gazette.

(2) In any period during which a pensionable officer is on part salary, there shall be deducted from the salary he receives during such period, an amount as may be prescribed by the Minister by order published in the Gazette which shall not be an amount which exceeds five percent.

(3) Any contribution made under this section shall accrue daily and shall be deducted by the Accountant-General or other appropriate pay officer monthly in arrears from the salary of each pensionable officer.

(4) Where a pensionable officer is seconded in accordance with any enactment to an undertaking whose employees are not members of the Scheme, he shall continue to be treated as a pensionable officer for the purposes of this Act, and the undertaking to which he is seconded shall continue to deduct contributions from his salary in the manner provided for in subsection (1) and such contributions shall be paid into the Fund in accordance with section 7(2).

(5) Subsection (4) shall not apply where a pensionable officer is seconded on terms which entitle him to be paid a gratuity by the undertaking to which he is seconded.

12.—(1) A pensionable officer shall be eligible to receive a refund of his contributions paid into the Fund, in any of the following circumstances—

Refund of contributions.

- (a) on the abolition of the office of the pensionable officer where he has less than ten years service and is no longer employed in the public service;
- (b) on the resignation of the pensionable officer where he has less than ten years service;
- (c) on the dismissal of the pensionable officer from the service.

(2) The payment of a refund under subsection (1)(a) shall not prejudice the eligibility of a pensionable officer to receive a redundancy payment computed in accordance with the Employment (Termination and Redundancy Payments) Act.

(3) Where a pensionable officer from whose pay deductions have been made by way of contribution to his pension, gratuity or other allowance, dies in circumstances where he has less than ten years service, and no pension, gratuity or other allowance has been paid or is payable under this Act, his legal personal representative shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of the deductions so made.

(4) Where a pensionable officer or his legal personal representative becomes entitled to a refund under this section, any debt due to the Government by that pensionable officer may be deducted from the refund.

(5) A pensionable officer who is eligible for a refund of his contributions under this section may give notice in writing to the Minister, that he does not wish to be paid the refund when leaving the public service; however—

- (a) if the pensionable officer should re-enter the public service, the period of service as a pensionable officer during which he made contributions that were not refunded shall be taken into account when computing his pension; or
- (b) if the pensionable officer does not re-enter the public service, he shall be eligible to receive a refund of his contributions on attaining the normal retirement age.

PART V—Provisions Relating to Pensions for Pensionable Officer

Non-application of provisions to Constables.
Normal
retirement.

13. The provisions of sections 14, 15, 17, 21 and 22 shall not apply to Constables.

14.—(1) For the avoidance of doubt, and subject to subsection (2), it is hereby declared that, without prejudice to the right of the Governor-General to require a pensionable officer to retire from the public service in accordance with the provisions of section 21, or for a pensionable officer to elect to take early retirement in accordance with section 15, the normal retirement age of a new public officer shall be sixty-five years.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), during the transition period, an existing public officer may be granted normal retirement if he has attained, during any month specified in Column I of the First Schedule, the corresponding age set out in Column II thereof.

First
Schedule.

Early
retirement.

15. Subject to section 21, a pensionable officer may be granted early retirement from the public service by the Governor-General and be eligible to receive pension, gratuity or other allowance if—

First
Schedule.

- (a) being an existing public officer, he has, during any of the months during the transition period, specified in Column I of the First Schedule, attained the corresponding age specified in Column III thereof;
- (b) he is a new public officer and has attained the age of sixty years; or
- (c) on medical evidence to the satisfaction of the Governor-General, he is incapable by reason of any infirmity of mind or body of discharging the duties of his office and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Deferred pension.

16.—(1) A pensionable officer may be eligible for a deferred pension, calculated at the date of his retirement, in the following circumstances—

- (a) where the pensionable officer resigns from the public service with ten years or more of service; or

- (b) where the office which the pensionable officer occupied was abolished and he had, at the time of the abolition of the office, completed ten years or more of service.

(2) The payment of refund in the circumstances provided under subsection (1)(b) shall not prejudice the eligibility of a pensionable officer to receive a redundancy payment computed in accordance with the Employment (Termination and Redundancy Payments) Act.

17.—(1) Where a deferred pensioner dies before attaining the normal retirement age, a commuted pension gratuity may be paid to his legal personal representatives.

Commutated pension gratuity in relation to a deferred pensioner.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to a deferred pensioner who left the public service on or before such date as may be determined by the Minister by order published in the Gazette, unless he has once again become a pensionable officer after that day; and any commuted pension gratuity paid to the legal personal representatives pursuant to subsection (1) shall be computed in accordance with the provisions in force at the date when the pensionable officer finally leaves the public service.

18. No pension, gratuity or other allowance shall be granted under this Act to any pensionable officer in respect of service—

Service not qualifying for pension.

- (a) while on probation unless immediately following that period of probation he was confirmed as a pensionable officer;
- (b) while he was absent from duty on leave without salary, unless such leave is granted on grounds of public policy.

19.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, the emoluments used in the computation of pension, gratuity and other allowance that a pensionable officer shall receive shall be prescribed by Regulations made under this Act.

Emoluments and service to be taken into account when computing pension, gratuity or other allowance.

(2) All service of a pensionable officer after the age of normal retirement up to the age of seventy years but prior to retirement shall be taken into account in computing his pension.

Retirement in the public interest.

20. Where the service of a pensionable officer is terminated on the ground that, having regard to the conditions of the public service, the usefulness of the pensionable officer and all other circumstances of the case, such termination is desirable in the public interest, and the pensions, gratuities or other allowances cannot otherwise be granted to him under the provisions of this Act, the Governor-General may, if he thinks fit, grant such pensions, gratuities or other allowances as he thinks just and proper, not exceeding in amount that for which the pensionable officer would be eligible if he retired from the public service in the circumstances described in section 15(1)(c) and was not eligible for an additional pension in accordance with regulations made hereunder.

Compulsory retirement.

21. The Governor-General may require a pensionable officer to compulsorily retire from the public service at any time after he attains the age of sixty years.

Suspension of pensions, etc., on assumption of other office in the public service.

22. If a pensionable officer to whom a pension, gratuity or other allowance has been granted under this Act, is appointed to another office in the public service, the payment of his pension, gratuity or other allowance, shall be suspended during the period of his re-employment.

PART VI—Provisions Relating to Pensions for Constables

Special provisions relating to the payment of pension etc., to Constables on early retirement.

23.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a Constable may be granted early retirement from the Force and be eligible to receive a pension, gratuity or other allowance in any of the following circumstances—

- (a) on or after attaining the age of fifty-five years;
- (b) on medical evidence, to the satisfaction of the Governor-General, that he is incapable of discharging his duties efficiently by reason of any infirmity of body that is likely to be permanent, or any infirmity of mind; or
- (c) subject to the approval of the Governor-General, on or after attaining the age of fifty years after completing not less than thirty years of service;
- (d) at his option, after completing not less than thirty-five years of service.

(2) If a Constable to whom a pension, gratuity or other allowance has been granted under this Act, is appointed to another office in the public service, the payment of his pension, gratuity or other allowance, shall be suspended during the period of his re-employment.

(3) A Constable who left the Force in circumstances in which, having regard to the provisions of subsection (1), he was not entitled to a pension, gratuity or other allowance, may, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, be granted a pension, gratuity or other allowance on attaining the age of sixty years:

However, if he dies before attaining that age, there may be paid to his legal personal representative the gratuity which he would have been eligible to receive if he had attained the age of sixty years and had elected to receive a gratuity and reduced pension.

(4) The provisions of subsection (3) shall not apply to any Constable who, having left the Force prior to such date as may be determined by the Minister by order, was not in the Force on that day, unless he is reappointed to the Force or to the public service after that day.

24. The normal age of retirement of a Constable shall be sixty years.

Normal retirement age of Constable.

25. The Governor-General may require a Constable to compulsorily retire from the Force at any time after he attains the age of fifty-five years.

Compulsory retirement relating to Constables.

PART VII—Pensions etc., not assignable

26.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a pension, gratuity, or other allowance granted under this Act shall—

Pensions, etc., not assignable.

- (a) not be assignable or transferable except for the purpose of satisfying—
 - (i) a debt due to the Government; or
 - (ii) an order of any court for the payment of periodical sums of money towards the maintenance of the spouse, former spouse, or minor child of the pensionable officer to whom the pension, gratuity, or other allowance has been granted; and

- (b) not be liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon for or in respect of any debt or claim whatever except as provided in this section.

(2) An assignment or a transfer of not more than one-fifth of any gratuity payable by virtue of this Act may be made for the purpose of repaying a debt due to the Jamaica Civil Service Mutual Thrift Society Limited.

PART VIII—Death Benefits Relating to Pensionable Officers

Gratuity where a pensionable officer dies in the service.

27. Where a pensionable officer dies while in the public service, the Governor-General may grant to the legal personal representative of that officer, a gratuity of an amount not exceeding either one year's pensionable emoluments of the officer or his commuted pension gratuity, if any, whichever is the greater.

Pensions and gratuities on death of pensionable officer in the course of duty.

28.—(1) Where a pensionable officer in the public service dies as a result of injuries received—

- (a) in the actual discharge of his duties;
- (b) in circumstances in which the injury is not wholly or mainly due to, or seriously aggravated by, his own gross negligence or misconduct; and
- (c) on account of circumstances specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, the Governor-General may grant a pension, gratuity and other allowance as may be prescribed.

(2) For the purposes of this section, references to a pensionable officer being injured in the circumstances specified in subsection (1), shall be construed as including references to his contracting a disease to which he is exposed specifically by the nature of his duty, not being a disease wholly or mainly due to, or seriously aggravated by, his own gross negligence or misconduct.

(3) A pensionable officer who dies as a result of injuries received while travelling by air, sea or land in pursuance of official instructions shall be deemed to have died in the circumstances specified in paragraphs (a) and (c) of subsection (1).

(4) Nothing in this section shall authorize the making of an award where the date on which an injury is sustained is more than seven years prior to the date of the pensionable officer's death.

(5) Where the Governor-General is satisfied that the death of the pensionable officer resulted from the infliction of injuries which, although not inflicted upon him while he was acting in the execution of his duty, were nevertheless inflicted upon him wholly or mainly because he was in the public service, the Governor-General may grant to the dependents of that pensionable officer, a pension and gratuity as if his death had occurred in the circumstances specified in subsection (1).

PART IX—Survivor's Benefit

29. The provisions of this Part shall not apply to Judges.

Non-application of Part to Judges.

30.—(1) For the purposes of this Part—

Interpretation in this Part.

“benefit” means any benefit payable to a relevant child, surviving spouse, mother or father under this Part;

Notification as to names and ages of spouse, children, etc., to be furnished to the Ministry or Department. Fourth Schedule.

(2) The Ministry, Department of Government or an entity listed in the Fourth Schedule in which a pensionable officer is employed may require evidence to prove to its satisfaction the accuracy of the information furnished under this Part.

(3) A pensionable officer shall notify the Ministry, Department of Government or an entity, listed in the Fourth Schedule to which he is employed of any change to the information that he is required to furnish under subsection (1), within six months after the change occurs.

34. Every pensionable officer shall notify the Ministry, Department of Government or an entity listed in the Fourth Schedule in which he is employed, within six months from the date of the event, the death of his spouse or any of his relevant children.

Notice of death of spouse or child of officer. Fourth Schedule.

35. For the purposes of this Part, when the marriage of any pensionable officer has been annulled or dissolved by the decree of any competent court—

Divorce of officer.

- (a) the pensionable officer shall notify the Ministry, Department of Government or an entity listed in the Fourth Schedule in which he is employed, within six months from the date of the decree, the fact thereof; and
- (b) the spouse of the pensionable officer shall upon such decree, cease to be a person who, by virtue of being such a spouse, is eligible for the award or payment of benefit under this Part.

Fourth Schedule.

Recognition of paternity.

36. For the purposes of this Act, where the father and mother of a relevant child were not married to each other at the time of its conception or at some subsequent time, the relationship of father and child, and any relationship traced in any degree through that relationship shall be recognized only if paternity has been admitted or established in accordance with the Status of Children Act.

PART X—Miscellaneous Provisions and Regulations

Regulations and making of orders by the Minister.

37.—(1) The Minister may make regulations, generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing make regulations—

- (a) with respect to the management, control and administration of the Fund;
- (b) prescribing the manner of payment and collection of contributions;
- (c) providing for the procedure for dealing with unclaimed moneys under the Fund;
- (d) providing that the provisions of this Act shall not apply or shall, apply with such modifications as may be specified in the regulations, to any person or class of person;
- (e) for the computation of payments of pension, gratuity and any other benefit;
- (f) with respect to the suspension or abatement of a pension in circumstances where the pensionable officer is sentenced to a term of imprisonment or death by a competent court;
- (g) giving guidance to the Board regarding the issuing of directions in accordance with section 5(4) and any other provision of this Act;
- (h) to provide for anything which may be necessary for the better carrying out of any of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Where the Minister is satisfied that it is equitable that any regulation made under this section should have retrospective effect in order to confer a benefit upon or remove a disability attaching to any person that regulation may be given retrospective effect for that purpose.

(3) Regulations under this section shall be subject to affirmative resolution of the House of Representatives.
